

Comprehension and Summary Skills

Comprehension requires reading a passage and answering questions to show understanding.

Summarizing involves condensing a longer piece of writing into its main points, focusing on the core message while eliminating unnecessary details.