

Characterization in Modern Novels

Characterization refers to how an author develops characters in a story. This can be done through descriptions of their appearance, actions, thoughts, and dialogue. Characters may evolve throughout the novel, showing growth or change.